Points of Interest

- 1 NEW QUARTER PARK - formerly part of Camp Peary, was acquired by York County in 1976 through the Federal Surplus Land Act. Besides several recreational amenities, two civil war redoubts exist on the site.
- 2 DANDY - The ancestral home of the Goodwin Family, Dandy comprises an area of about 400 acres. The land was sold in 1668 to James Goodwin, son of London salt merchant Peter Goodwin and speaker of the House of Burgesses from Jamestown. British and Confederate troops built earth redoubts on this land.
- 3 GOODWIN ISLANDS - Part of the Virginia Birding and Wildlife Trail System and the Chesapeake Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve managed by VIMS. The islands include extensive marshland and are nursery, spawning and foraging habitats for many finfish, birds and other animals.
- 4 SEAFORD SCALLOP COMPANY - The business was started in the 1920s and is now one of largest scallop producers on the East Coast.
- 5 SHIP'S POINT - One of many places along York County's shoreline where light artillery batteries were located during the Civil War.
- 6 WORMLEY CREEK - A tidal inlet named for Christopher Wormley, a local property owner. Land surrounding the creek was occupied by American Revolution and Civil War troops.
- 7 USCG TRAINING CENTER - The largest training command in the Coast Guard. The federal government has owned the property since 1917 and was formerly the site of a Navy Mine Warfare School before becoming Coast Guard property in 1959.
- 8 MOORE'S MILL DAM - Location of former grist mill and part of a 500-acre plantation owned by Augustine Moore.
- 9 YORK RIVER - First named the Pamunkey River by the Indians, then changed to Charles River in 1634 before being named the York River in 1643 after the Duke of York.

Kayaking and Canoeing Safety Tips

- Always wear a life jacket.
- Know your ability and the demands of the waterway.
- Stay hydrated! Bring plenty of drinking water.
- Avoid paddling at night and during unstable weather.
- Bring suntan lotion and a hat to protect you from the sun. Sunburn is the #1 boating injury!
- Keep our waterways beautiful! Please place all trash in designated receptacles.
